John Godber's sparkling 2018 comedy: Scary Bikers

When retired miner Don and former teacher Carol meet in a graveyard, they didn't imagine how an innocent coffee and a bike ride through the Yorkshire Dales would lead to a tandem ride across Europe to Florence. But the date is 23 June 2016 and Don and Carol are on opposite sides of the Brexit fence.

One thing is for sure: it takes two to tandem!
